Encounter Uganda This fast paced entertaining novel contains true engaging stories that will educate and take the reader through a variety of emotions. Joshua is divinely called to separate from his family to lay his life on the line for a nation of people whom he had never met or longing to encounter. The Dark Continent awaits.

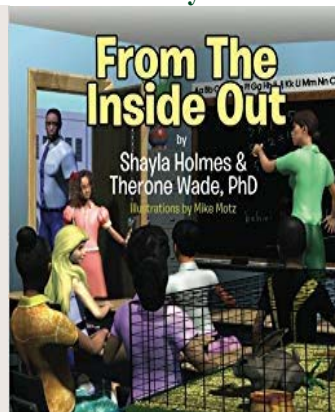

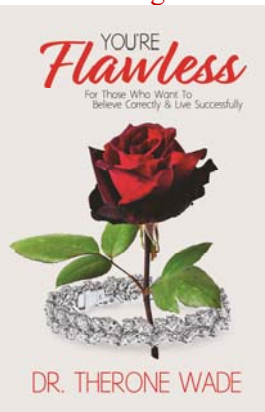

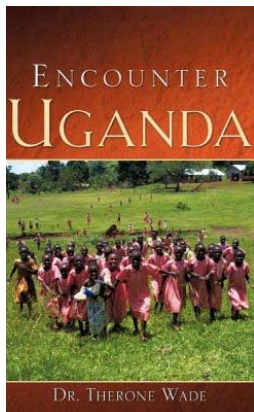

You're Flawless This is an inspiring and uplifting self-help work that pushes readers to be their best selves and achieve their potential. It addresses a series of eight lifestyle philosophies, which urges others to see that they are special and unique and that they have a gift to share with the world during their lifetime. It addresses cultivating a strong identity and self-worth, maintaining healthy relationships with other people, controlling anger, understanding the power of words, making wise decisions, setting and achieving goals, and overcoming obstacles. Flawless workshops and school assemblies are available.

From The Inside Out On her first day of school, Bre discovers that the other kids are not like her, but a special teacher helps her find the special traits that she has on the inside. This beautifully illustrated children's book inspires children to learn they are special and unique. It teaches them how to overcome obstacles and turn them into opportunities. Interactive materials and games are provided to reinforce concepts contained in the story. FTIO school assemblies offered.

EXCERPTS FROM THE NOVEL:

He (PK's Father) turned and faced Dr. Sheffield. "Where does one's privacy end and a baby's dignity begin? This is not advocating the total annihilation of abortion. The advanced medical abilities to successfully treat women and the illness of unborn children were not available in 1973. The Constitution is a living document. Our laws should adapt responsibly and morally with our society. Our choice is to bring life to the world. Hopefully, that life will be a light."

(PK reflects on her personal beliefs on human life and God.)

I had not planned to enter parenthood now. It may be a surprise to my family, but it is not a surprise to God. I believe that the Lord has a purpose in everyone's life.

To me, the very meaning of life means that there will be death at some point. Good and bad things happen to good and bad people. I couldn't believe God sits distant in heaven to judge us. Even harder to believe was that He intentionally sends tragedies into our lives to destroy us. Sickness, poverty, pain, and more is natural to all whoever walks the planet. I don't think anyone can blame God when terrible things happen to them. People rarely thank Him for the small blessings they receive every day. They have long forgotten about them and believe they deserve all the good treasures in life.

LIVE SUCCESSFULLY!

(PK [now pregnant] purchases a card for her mother to begin a dialogue about her unknown pregnancy.)

I went to the greeting card section and purchased a card for expectant mothers. The outside of the card read: Congratulations on your expected blessing. The inside had the following message: When God produced light and darkness, He spoke them into existence.

When God made the waters and land, He called them into place. When God fashioned plants and animals, He said it and it was so. When God created humans, He designed us with His very hands and personally breathed life into our fragile bodies. Life is God's most valuable gift. Each one is precious, special, and personalized from Him.
